Dear Mr. Funches:

On February 1, 2002, our firm Watkins, Meegan, Drury & Company, L.L.C., based in Bethesda, Maryland received a corporate contract from the General Services Administration (GSA) under the worldwide Federal Supply Schedule. We are qualified to perform services under two Special Item Numbers (SINs) as follows:

1. Corporate Schedule SIN C R704: Auditing Services which includes financial audits, financial related audits and other miscellaneous activities of audit organizations.
2. Corporate Schedule SIN C R710: Financial Management Services which includes accounting, budgeting, financial management systems, financial reporting and analysis, and financial planning and performance measurement. Some services we have performed in these areas includes forensic accounting/investigation, internal control reviews, project administration, cost certifications, activity-based costing allocation methodology development, database development, etc.

Watkins, Meegan, Drury & Company, L.L.C., has been providing high quality accounting, auditing, tax, and financial management services in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area for the past 27 years. We have grown to rank as one of the top 100 largest CPA firms in the country.

This growth is a direct result of our professionals being dedicated and committed to excellence. We would like to provide this same level of service to you and your organization.

We have committed resources to provide high quality services to the federal government. Because of this commitment, we are personally managing our federal government contracting operation. We would like to have an opportunity to meet with you to discuss your needs and the professional services we can offer.

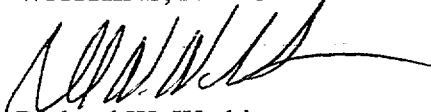

If you are interested in receiving our Federal Supply Schedule catalog price list, please return the enclosed card.
